25X1

1. The Director's office advised that the Director had attempted to get in touch with Representative Victor L. Anfuso (D., N. Y.), and eventually Anfuso had to leave town unexpectedly. His office will call the Director on Monday, the 28th, when Anfuso returns.

2. After [] tried to reach the DCI by telephone this morning, I talked with him and explained that the Director would be out until early afternoon. (See Memorandum for the Director.) Subsequently the Director's office advised that the Director had talked with [] stating that it would be necessary to discuss this with Senator Richard B. Russell (D., Ga.). It will probably be early next week before the necessary arrangements can be made for Agency representatives to appear before the Senate Foreign Relations Committee.

3. Attempted to talk with Mr. William P. Gullledge, on the staff of the Senate District of Columbia Committee, concerning the letter from Senator Alan Bible (D., Nev.) to the DCI asking for comments on S. 4153. I informed his secretary that we wished to acknowledge receipt of the letter in view of the fact that it would take us a few days to prepare appropriate comments and coordinate with the Bureau of the Budget.

5. Paul Borel advised that he happened to run into the Director with a copy of General Gavin's book in his hand. The Director suggested that it be passed to ONE for review and comment. Borel advised that he was going to deliver it to Abbot Smith in ONE.
